Bengali author Toru Dutt's A Sheaf Gleaned in French Fields (1876), a volume of English translations of French poems, enhanced scholars' understanding of the transnational and multilingual contexts in which Dutt lived and worked.

Hegra is an archaeological site in present-day Saudi Arabia and was the second largest city of the Nabataean Kingdom (fourth century BCE to first century CE). Archaeologist Laila Nehmé recently traveled to Hegra to study its ancient tombs, built into the rocky outcrops of a vast desert, these burial chambers seem to blend seamlessly with nature.
